

The Byford Learning Centre will recommence in June after a lull in operations. A number of learning opportunities will be on offer, mostly 'hands on' and during the day.

Taster sessions will be held on Tuesday mornings:

Finance around the home
How to make do and mend with clothes
Women's Health services in the region.

Ongoing sessions will also be on offer:

Fine art work in watercolours
Aromatherapy – making useful balms and creams
Song writing circle

All facilitators are local (even the Bank Manager!) and costs will be kept to a minimum.

Topics are designed to be enjoyable but may provide the impetus for you to progress to formalized training.

All courses currently on offer will be held in the Briggs Park Pavilion Annexe, Lesser room, Mead Street, Byford.

Membership of the Learning Centre is $1.00 per annum.

The cost of tuition and materials will depend on the course chosen.

Our current Book club (meeting on the last Monday afternoon of each month) is well subscribed, but if there were sufficient numbers interested in expanding into another club, sharing love of reading the latest works, then register your interest through submitting the form. If there is sufficient interest then another club will be considered.

To register your interest in any of the courses on offer, please complete the form below and drop it into the Byford News agency in the box provided or contact Eileen Tel 9525 2545 or Richard Tel 9525 4087
